Section 5: Event Arrangements

NEMA staff will make all necessary arrangements for all scheduled conference activities and events. Please do not contact the facility or other vendors directly regarding catering, transportation, decorations or other details relating to the conference unless approved in advance by NEMA staff.

Section 6: Sponsor Exhibits

Each sponsor is entitled to one (1) 10 foot wide x 8 foot deep exhibit space. Booths will not be piped and draped. NEMA will provide a 6-foot clothed and skirted table, 2 chairs, and waste basket for each exhibit area. Electricity is not included and will need to be ordered through the facility. If additional equipment or services are needed, please contact the facility directly. Additional costs incurred for items not supplied by NEMA will be the responsibility of the exhibitor.

Booth space is available to all sponsors but is not always needed. Please indicate if you will take advantage of this opportunity.

Exhibits will be located at the Hyatt Regency Chicago.

_____ YES, we will have a booth

_____ NO, we will not have a booth

Section 7: Optional Exhibitor Registrations

Each exhibiting organization has the option to register up to three (3) additional individuals to work the exhibit. Exhibitor Registration will allow these individuals to participate in all conference activities and meals on the two (2) exhibition days, October 3 and 4. The cost is $350 per person.

Exhibitor Registrations can be added any time before September 4, 2016 by emailing full contact information for each individual to Ashley House at ahouse@csg.org. No additional registrations will be accepted after that deadline.

Section 8: Deadlines

To realize the full benefit of NEMA Conference sponsorship, it is very important to make note of all deadlines associated with the Conference. A list of important dates and deadlines is listed on the NEMA website. The pre-planning contact for each sponsor will be notified of changes in advance and with reasonable notice to respond, however, if submission deadlines are missed it could result in loss of benefits or opportunities all together.

Section 9: Cancellation

All cancellations must be received at NEMA Headquarters in writing. A cancellation fee equal to 50% of the total cost of the sponsorship will apply to any sponsor cancellation received by July 15, 2016. After July 15, 2016, no refunds will be given.

Section 10: Signature and Acceptance of Terms

The application must be signed in order to confirm reservations.

I have read and understand the information provided and agree to abide by the rules and provisions set forth in this document, the conference brochures, the Official Exhibit Rules and Regulations, Private Sector Guidelines, and those, which govern the membership and board of directors of the National Emergency Management Association.

*All times are tentative and subject to change.

1. Exhibition and Sponsorship objectives – The NEMA Conference Exhibition is produced by, and is the property of the National Emergency Management Association, herein referred to as NEMA. The Exhibition is a practical, education adjunct to the professional meetings held during the NEMA Conference. The Exhibition is meant to supplement the professional meetings by providing state staff with the various types of products, services and information available to them. Exhibitors are expected to display their products and/or discuss their services with awareness of the professional and practical needs of NEMA members. NEMA reserves the right to refuse space to any applicant, which, in the opinion of the Association, is unlikely to contribute to the overall objectives of the Conference.
2. Exhibitor Representatives Responsibilities – Each exhibitor must name at least one person to be the official on-site representative and responsible party and a pre-planning coordinator. These can be the same individual. The pre-planning contact will receive all relevant materials including confirmations, scheduling updates and alerts relating to the Conference Exhibition. The pre-planning representative shall be authorized to enter into such contracts as may be necessary for fulfillment of obligations to NEMA and to other contractors and subcontractors. At least one representative must be at the display during all official hours of the exhibition. Exhibit representatives must comply with NEMA's rules and regulations contained in this agreement, the Private Sector Guidelines, the conference brochure and the rules and regulations which govern the Association.
3. Contract for Space - This application for exhibit space, confirmation, the notices of space assignment by NEMA and the full payment of rental charges, together constitute a contract for a right to use the space. Application should be filed promptly and must be accompanied by payment. No fees will be refunded on cancellations received after July 15, 2016. A cancellation fee equal to 50% of the total cost of the sponsorship will apply to any cancellation received by July 15, 2016. All cancellations must be received in writing at NEMA Headquarters office in Lexington, Kentucky. Space is limited and will be assigned at the sole discretion of the NEMA staff.
4. Arrangement of Exhibits – All exhibits must be arranged so as not to obstruct the general view or hide the exhibits of others. The standard booth equipment provided to the exhibitor by the Management will consist of an exhibit area 10 feet wide by 8 feet deep, a table, 2 chairs, and a waste basket. A maximum height of 10 feet will be permitted on all exhibit fixtures, components and identification signs.
5. Set-Up and Dismantle – Exhibits may be installed and dismantled in the designated exhibits area at the designated set-up time and date only. Exhibitors may not dismantle or disturb their exhibits until after the official closing. Failure to observe this rule will result in a verbal and written reprimand for the first offense. Financial penalties, to be determined by the NEMA staff, will apply for subsequent offenses. All exhibits and accompanying supplies must be dismantled and removed from the exhibit area by the designated time. Times are tentative and subject to change.
6. Registration of Exhibitor Personnel – Each sponsoring organization is entitled to two (2) complimentary forum registrations; exhibiting organizations receive one (1) complimentary registration. No additional complimentary registrations will be provided. Additional registrations may be purchased via the website at prevailing rates at the time of registration. Additional fees apply. All personnel in exhibit booths are required to display proper name badges throughout move-in, show hours and move-out. NEMA staff and security will be checking for badge identification on all sponsor representatives.
7. Unclaimed Space – Any space unclaimed by 5:00 pm on Sunday, October 2, 2016 may be reassigned without refund; NEMA will not be liable for any incurred expenses.
8. Union Labor – Exhibitors are required to observe all union contracts in effect among show management, official contractors, facilities and various labor organizations represented. Any labor required for installation, dismantle, decoration or use of equipment must be ordered through the official service contractor.
9. Care of Building – Exhibitors or their agents shall not injure or deface the walls or doors of the buildings, the exhibit space, equipment or furnishings. The exhibitor will be held liable for any such damage caused by him or his agent.
10. Use of Exhibit Space – No exhibitor shall assign or share the whole or any part of the space allotted without the consent of the Management and approval of the terms thereof. No exhibitor is permitted to show goods other than those manufactured or handled by him in the regular course of business. No firm or organization not assigned space in the exhibition room will be permitted to solicit business in any manner within the exhibit room.
11. Co-sponsorship – Sharing, co-sponsoring or partnerships between companies to purchase a sponsorship or exhibit is not permitted.
12. Sound Devices and Noise Level – The use of devices for the mechanical reproduction of sound is prohibited. Any demonstration or presentation must be conducted at a low volume so that nearby exhibitors are not bothered.
13. Entertainment – The sponsor agrees not to sponsor group functions such as hospitality suites, tours, films, showings, speeches or other activities during the meeting and exhibition hours that would in any way interfere with delegate attendance at regular NEMA Conference meetings or activities or induce visitors away from the Exhibition. The sponsor must clear with Management any intended group functions.
14. Circulation and Solicitation – Distribution by the sponsor of any printed matter, souvenirs or other articles must be confined to the space assigned. No undignified manner of attracting attention will be permitted. All aisle space belongs to NEMA. No exhibit or advertising matter will be allowed to extend beyond the space allotted to the exhibitor.
15. Direct Selling – In the event that the exhibitor engages in on-location transactions, the exhibitor will be responsible for complying with all federal, state and local laws regarding sales taxes and laws that may pertain to such sales.
16. General Restrictions – (A) The Management reserves the right to, restrict, prohibit or evict without refund any exhibit or person that, in the Management's opinion, because of noise, method of operation or for any reason, becomes objectionable and may detract from the general character of the Exhibition, who interferes in any way with another exhibiting organization or their exhibit staff or who displays a disregard for the rules and regulations set forth in this document or that govern the Association. (B) No display material exposing an unfinished surface to neighboring booths or an aisle will be permitted. (C) Exhibitors are not permitted to set up displays in hotel rooms, hotel suites or lobbies. (D) Exhibitors can distribute only those food and drink samples, which are manufactured or handled by them in the regular course of business unless approved in advance by NEMA.
17. Location of Exhibits – The Management reserves the right to alter the location of the Exhibition and/or individual exhibits or booths as it deems advisable and in the interest of the Exhibition. Notice of such changes will be sent to the Pre-Planning Contact.
18. Fair Employment – The exhibitor agrees that during the life of this contract he will not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, creed, national origin or ancestry. It is the policy of NEMA that all parties doing business with the Association adhere to the principles of, and take responsible affirmative action to ensure positive progress in Equal Opportunity Employment.
19. Liability and Insurance – The Management will take certain precautions to safeguard the exhibit; however, the Management will not be liable for loss or damage to property of the exhibitor or his representatives, employees or agents from theft, fire, accident or any other cause beyond its control. Exhibitors are advised to insure themselves at their own expense against property loss or damage and against liability for personal injury. Management's liability for injury to persons or loss or damage to property shall be limited to such as may be caused by its negligence. The exhibitor shall indemnify the Management against and hold it harmless from, negligence of the exhibitor in connection with exhibitor's use of display space.

20. Fire Regulations – All material used in the exhibit booths must be made of flameproof materials and conform to all fire department regulations. Exhibitors planning to display gasoline or diesel powered vehicles must comply with all city and state fire codes and applicable permit requirements. If the exhibitor neglects or violates these regulations, or otherwise incurs fire hazards, the Management may cancel, without refund, all or such part of the exhibit that may be irregular.
21. Failure to Open Exhibition – In case the premises shall be destroyed or damaged, or if the NEMA Conference Exhibition fails to take place as scheduled or is interrupted and/or discontinued, or access to the premises is prevented or interfered with by reason of any strike, lockout, injunction, act of war, act of God, emergency declared by any US government agency, or for any other reason, this contract may be terminated by NEMA. In the event of such termination, the exhibitor waives any and all damages and claims for damages.
22. Regulations and Contract – These regulations have been formulated in the best interests of all concerned and become part of the contract between the exhibitor and NEMA. All matters and questions not covered by these regulations are subject to the decisions of the Management.
